TRANS-TASMAN MUTUAL RECOGNITION ACT 1997

15. TRANS-TASMAN MUTUAL RECOGNITION PRINCIPLE IN RELATION TO OCCUPATIONS -

1. The Trans-Tasman mutual recognition principle in relation to occupations is that, subject to this Act, an individual who is registered in an Australian jurisdiction for an occupation is entitled, after giving notice to the local registration authority for the equivalent occupation
 - (a) To be registered in New Zealand for the equivalent occupation; and
 - (b) Pending such registration, to carry on the equivalent occupation in New Zealand.
2. The entitlement described in subsection (1) arises by virtue of this Act, and no law of New Zealand requiring an individual seeking to carry on that occupation to have any particular qualification before doing so applies to any individual who is registered in an Australian jurisdiction for an occupation and who gives notice to the local registration authority for the equivalent occupation in accordance with section 19.

Cf. Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Act 1997, cl. 16(1) (Aust).

22. REFUSAL OF REGISTRATION -

1. A local registration authority may refuse to grant registration if -
 - (a) Any of the statements or information in the notice required by section 19 are materially false or misleading; or
 - (b) Any document or information required by section 19 has not been provided; or
 - (c) Any document or information required by section 19 has not been provided; or
 - (d) The authority determines -
 - (i) That the occupation in which registration is sought is not an equivalent occupation; and
 - (ii) That equivalence cannot be achieved by the imposition of conditions.
2. In making a determination under subsection (1)(d), the local registration authority must disregard the power of the Tribunal to make a declaration on the basis of section 30(1)(b).
3. A refusal to grant registration on the ground referred to in subsection (1)(d) takes effect at the end of a period that -
 - (a) Is specified in the notice given under section 23(1); and
 - (b) Is no less than two weeks; and
 - (c) Commences on the day on which the notice is deemed to have been given to the applicant.
4. A local registration authority may revoke a refusal to grant registration at any time before it takes effect.

Cf. Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Act 1997, cl. 22 (Aust).
